

Campaign Sentinel.

The Weekly Indiana State Sentinel will be furnished for Three Months, during the Campaign, at 25 CENTS A COPY.

Send in the names. d.k.w.

THE DAILY STATE SENTINEL is sent by all the early morning express and freight trains, and delivered to subscribers in adjacent towns at the same time as it is distributed in this city. This enables readers at a distance from the Capital of Indiana, to get the news of the day from six to twelve hours before they can receive their papers published elsewhere. News dealers and carriers in any of the towns on railroads extending to Indianapolis, will be supplied with the Sentinel, at as good terms as any other paper. Clubs for the Daily will be supplied at Agents' rates. Orders are solicited.

READ THE DOCUMENTS

EXPOSING THE FRAUDS, USURPATIONS AND CORRUPTIONS OF THE PRESENT PARTY IN POWER.

We have for sale the following valuable documents, and ask Democrats in every County in Township in Indiana to club together and send for them, for distribution.

Forbes' speeches.
The speeches of Hon. D. W. Voorhees upon the financial policy and frauds of the Administration party, and his indication of his statements in that speech to reply to the charges of Mr. Davis, of Massachusetts. These speeches show, from Republican records, the expenditures of the Administration; the amount of the public indebtedness, and the gross frauds by which that debt has been increased. Published in one pamphlet of sixteen pages, and will be furnished at $1 per hundred, and $10 per thousand.

Speech of Richardson, and Address to the Democracy of the United States.
The speech of Hon. W. A. Richardson, of Illinois, exposing the abolition schemes of negro equality, and what the tax-payers are paying for the experiment. In the same pamphlet (of eight pages) is the Address of the Democratic members of Congress to the Democracy of the United States, prepared by the Hon. W. A. Richardson, the most intimate friend of Senator Voorhees. Price ten cents per dozen, fifty cents per hundred, and four dollars per thousand.

Valley Forge Speeches.
On the Public Debt, Liability, and Expenditures, delivered in the House of Representatives on the 20th of June, 1862. Is published in one pamphlet of 8 pages. Price 50 cents per 100 copies.

Circulars of the Documents.
These documents should be placed in the hands of every voter in Indiana, as they discuss in a manner many subjects which have a deep interest for every citizen who desires to preserve constitutional liberty and to perpetuate the Union as framed by the Fathers of the Republic.

Speeches should be ordered by Express, if possible, as the postage is a cent a copy, and as this must be prepaid, it is taken out of the money sent. All orders accompanied with the cash, will be promptly attended to.

Address: ELDER, HARKNESS & BINGHAM, Indianapolis, Ind.

German Documents.
The Editor of the Indiana Volksblatt has printed in German the speech of Hon. D. W. Voorhees, upon the Financial Policy and Frauds of the Administration. It makes one pamphlet of 24 pages, printed in large clear type, and will be furnished at $2 per 100 copies. Let the Germans of Indiana be well supplied with this valuable speech. All orders accompanied with the cash will be promptly attended to.

Address: JULIUS BOETTCHER, Indianapolis.

A Mistake.
The impression appears to prevail among many Democrats that we have no job office connected with the SENTINEL. This is a mistake. There is no office in the city that is so well prepared to do all kinds of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING as we are (except large bill posters), and we will feel under obligations to all Democrats, not only in the city, but in the State, for any work they can send to our office. We have no public patronage to depend on to aid the paper—we ask the party to aid us with their work, as far as they can. We can do as good work, and on as good terms, as any other office.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.
RESIGNED.—Colonel William Harrison and Major John H. Martin, of the 14th Indiana.

Two more printers volunteered yesterday.
Orin Sackett and Oliver Moffit, both from Dodd's printing and book publishing office.

Henry R. Hill, of Rush County, the Quartermaster of the 10th Indiana Regiment, has been commissioned in the new 16th.

There are six companies of the 70th regiment recruited in this town, viz: Captains Harrison, Merrill, Gen. Wallace's, Menckers, Merrill's and Wilson's.

One hundred and sixty guerrillas captured in Kentucky, arrived here from Louisville night before last, and were furnished with lodgings at Camp Morton.

Meredith's company of the 70th regiment organized yesterday and elected William M. Meredith, Capt. H. H. H. 1st Lieutenant and Major Grey 2d Lieutenant.

Indianapolis Markets.—The following were the prices of grain yesterday, as furnished us by Mr. John Shober:

Wheat, red, 75c; white, 80c. Corn 28c @ 30c. Rye 45c, little offered. Barley 62c.

A company for the 70th regiment arrived from Morgan county yesterday evening, and were loudly cheered as their long train passed up Illinois street and along Washington street to the State House.

It has been suggested that the Grand Jury had better be set to drilling the drafted militia first, and the volunteers afterwards. We are not particular. All we want is for the rebels to "shoot over" as many of our boys as possible. Let the signs be communicated speedily.

Know Nothingism has had enough, but the Knights of the Golden Circle are ten times as bad.—Journal.

Have you forgotten that the Journal was the Know Nothing organ here, and how do you know that the lately discovered order to "shoot over" the boys, was taken from the degrees in both?

A correspondent asks us if there is no way that the free blacks who swell round our city, can be used in the draft for troops and be made to bear their share of the hardships of the war.

The policy of the President—and we think it the correct one—is to enroll the blacks coming into our lines as laborers. The same policy might be adopted in the draft about to be made, but whether it will be done or not, we can not say.

Beware of Counterfeits.—Yesterday a large number of $5 bills on the Commercial Bank of New York were offered about the several banks in the city by parties wishing to purchase small amounts and receive at least four-fifths in change. The number offered at several houses induced suspicion and led the proprietors to compare notes. The bankers, we understand, have not decided that the notes are counterfeit, but it would be well to avoid receiving them until the mystery of their sudden appearance in such unprecedented numbers is cleared up.

A Good Example.—It will be seen by the telegraphic column that the merchants of Boston have bound themselves to secure to their clerks who may enlist, their places when they return. This is right and it is patriotic and should be imitated here and elsewhere. Many young men who hearts respond to the call with ardor are deterred from volunteering by the dread of losing permanently good situations—of being thrown helplessly upon the community in which they lived when they return from the war. Let a similar association start here, and many young men will feel that the right sort of sympathy is felt for them. The mere bounty of men of this class is comparatively nothing. The assurance that they had not cast themselves upon the world by rallying around the flag of the country would make them feel much better than fifty or a hundred dollars in their pockets. Both, however, would not be amiss.

The Journal thinks we will laugh on "the other side of our mouth soon," if we don't quit laughing at the jokes of the set Great Jay. Well we will laugh while we can anyhow. The man who would not laugh at such a broad joke as that "presentment" would require to be tickled by a straw when Vincent was performing.

There are a few chances more, we believe, for volunteers in the 70th regiment—and but few. The 12th and 16th regiments are, however, not yet full, and have recruiting offices in town. They are good regiments, well officered and have an established reputation that will always assure certain benefits. Don't hang back and be too late for a place in any of the volunteer organizations if you desire to go and prefer a free will offering to a draft.

FIRE YESTERDAY.—About noon yesterday a fire broke out in the out buildings connected with the residence of Royal Mayhew on West street. The fire communicated from a place in the wash house and spread to and consumed the carriage house and two store rooms. The dwelling was with difficulty saved, and saved only by the exertions of the soldiers from the camp nearby. The fire broke out in the wash house, and the firemen, who were working with a will and prevented the spread of the flames to the main building. The engines from the city did not arrive in time to take part. The out buildings with their contents were consumed.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT.—The war meeting last night in front of the Bates House attracted a very large crowd. The object we believe, to respond to the President's call for additional troops to aid in putting down the rebellion. If the attendance of large gatherings indicate any thing they indicate the heart of the people of the capital beats in response to the call.

The meeting was addressed by Mr. Williamson, of Putnam county, Mr. Newcomb, of this city, Mr. Beeson, of Wayne county, Mr. Shunk, of the 11th Indiana, Mr. Ryan, of this city, and Col. Luck, of the 12th Indiana.

PERSONAL.—Dr. A. J. Mullen, Surgeon of the 35th Indiana, who was taken prisoner by Forrest's army in Tennessee, was in the city yesterday. The doctor had a pretty hard time of it. He was the first place, he would shoot a little before he was taken, and some of the Georgians swore that he was a better fighter than many of the combatants and they might be relieved from the duty of making a non-combatant. He was finally released, however, and was one of the party fired upon by the Tennessee regiment when approaching our lines under a flag of truce. He looks well, however, after his trials, and is still the cheerful, companionable gentleman he was before the war.

Recruiting was very brisk in the city yesterday. There seems to be a repugnance on the part of our young men to be drafted, and they are dying to the standard of their country to escape the draft—certainly the very best place to fly to.

There would be no difficulty in raising twelve or fifteen regiments more in this State for nine months, or even for a year, by calling for volunteers for that period. Thousands can go for that time—can so arrange their business, who think they will not be engaged for three years, or have a repugnance to doing so. Indiana is not going to be behind in any call, no matter in what shape it may come.

RECRUITING FOR THE TWELFTH.—Lieut. James M. Buchanan has opened a recruiting office for the 12th regiment, Col. Luck's, on Washington street, opposite Little's Hotel. This is a good place to enter the service in the regular army, to none from the State. Col. Luck stands high as an officer and a gentleman, one who understands his business and cares for his men. There is no risk to run in entering the 12th. The number of recruits in the lower officers have been sent and know the wants and capabilities of men, and consequently well executing duty from their men know they owe a duty to them and will do it. We expect to hear of Lieut. Buchanan having a full company in a few days.

A DESERTER SHOTS A SOLDIER AND THEN HIMSELF.—Yesterday a soldier, belonging to the 13th regulars, was sent west of the city to bring in a deserter named Poland that was reported to be hiding in the woods or fields some distance from town. The soldier, who was more than one soldier sent, Poland resisted and finally drew a revolver and fired two shots at Stout, one shot taking effect in Stout's breast. Stout then bayoneted the deserter Poland, and Poland without resistance, or, or design, discharged one barrel of his revolver at his own head, the shot taking effect between and above the eyes. He was living when brought to town, but will die if not already dead. Stout is very dangerously wounded.

G. W. Hawes & Co's new Indiana State Gazette and Business Directory is now in publication, and as the balance of the State is completed, it will be furnished with all upon the business men of the city for advertisements and subscriptions for the work. It will contain a reliable list of the business firms of the entire State, with much other valuable information, in substantial law binding and elegant engravings of the public buildings of the State. It affords superior advertising facilities, enabling merchants, manufacturers, professional and other business men to present their names to the entire trade of Indiana. Publication office: No. 18, E. Washington street, rooms Nos. 12 and 13, up stairs.

BRIGADIER GENERAL CRITTENDEN.—General Crittenden has been severely censured for the surrender of Murfreesboro', and undoubtedly somebody is to blame for a transaction that has cost discredit upon our arms. It is not well—nor is it just to form hasty judgments in such matters. It is better to wait for the facts, and in this case they should be brought out by a searching military investigation. We are informed by Dr. Mullen, of the 35th Indiana, who opportunities to see General Crittenden, that he was better than any one at a distance can have, that Gen. Crittenden was not to blame.

Dr. Mullen says that General Crittenden had just taken command, and that he arrived at Murfreesboro' with a large baggage and baggage company. He found a bad feeling existing between the 9th Michigan and the 34th Minnesota, the post regiments, that was carried to such an extent that they would not encamp together. He inspected the lines the day he arrived, and was the first to find that day the attack was made—ordered the concentration of the troops, and enjoined upon the commanding officers of both corps the necessity of strengthening the line, and for the general all necessary orders to prevent a surprise, and retired to a lodging in town, as he had no other quarters to go to. The surprise was complete, so far as he was concerned, and he was hurried away by the 14th Indiana, and was unable to resist. The surrender was made by Col. Lester, and we are informed that the officers lay all the blame on the Colonel. They excuse General Crittenden with one voice.

This much we say on the authority of Colonel Mullen without any desire or intention to prejudge the matter, for in times like this, where the lives and liberty of so many of our noblest sons are at stake, officers who seek high positions should be held to a strict accountability for recklessness or neglect.

A lady sends us the following poem, and asks the question—If I pay a dollar for my poodle, why should not others? There is no reason why. Jowler should be put in nomination for a city office.

From the New York Weekly Argus.
To my Dog Jowler.
Jowler, they've taxed you, honest friend,
Assessed you, put you in the roll;
To exile every dog they'll send
Unless some friend will pay his poll.

By all that's good, the morals meant
Betwixt us two to breed a strife
And drive us into banishment
Or bribe your friend to take your life.

But Jowler, don't you be alarmed!
If politicians do neglect you;
Confound their tax, you shan't be harmed,
I know your worth, and I'll protect you!

But taxes, by the Constitution,
Convey the right to represent;
So dogs, by this same resolution,
Might just as well as men be sent.

Now, dogs and men, and voters hear,
That Jowler's put in nomination
To go, upon the coming year,
And aid in public legislation.

Jowler, beware of demagogues,
Keep clear of the minority;
Take care to smell of other dogs,
And vote with the majority!

DRAFT!
Hark! Hark! Hark!
Fiercely the bullets are rattling!
Hark! Hark! Hark!
Bravely our brothers are battling!
Freely they for their lives dare!
Why should the laggard be spared?
All in our glory have shared!
Draft! Draft! Draft!

DRAFT! DRAFT! DRAFT!
What thought our traitors are mumbing!
Draft! Draft! Draft!
What thought our croakers are grumbling!
Still, from the peace gathered hoard
Freely let bounty be poured;
But, in this age of the sword,
Draft! Draft! Draft!

DRAFT! DRAFT! DRAFT!
Precious the time we are losing!
Draft! Draft! Draft!
War will not wait on youth's choosing!
Women will harrow the plain!
Children will garner the grain!
Age wields the mottos again!
Is not the price worth the pain?
Draft! Draft! Draft!

Many dealers will recommend imitations, and many more will sell them, and many more will profit by them.
